

Partnering for eDiscovery Excellence: The HaystackID Corporate Consulting and Advisory

Educating and Empowering Corporate Legal and Information Technology Departments

HaystackID serves more than 500 of the world's leading corporations and law firms from North American and European locations. Our combination of expertise and technical excellence, coupled with a culture of white glove customer service, makes us the alternative legal services provider that supports our corporate clients with a worldwide reach and a local expert touch. One critical element of our local expert touch is the education and empowerment we provide corporate legal and information technology departments with our comprehensive eDiscovery-centric corporate consulting.

Corporate Consulting and Advisory from HaystackID

In serving our corporate clients, HaystackID's top priority is to build trusted, long-lasting partnerships that educate and empower corporations to handle current and future eDiscovery requirements in litigation and investigations. We also strive to support our partners as their preferred provider of data management and legal discovery services across the core functions of collections, processing/hosting, and review.

Through our Corporate Consulting and Advisory (CCA) services, we work closely with corporations to identify corporate objectives, incorporate company perspectives into our proven defensible process, and strengthen the overall success of company eDiscovery programs. This ensures that internal resources are properly allocated, fees from eDiscovery providers are cost-effective, and outside counsel is provided with the necessary instructions and procedures regarding eDiscovery throughout the investigation and litigation lifecycles.

Corporate Consulting and Advisory Goals

• Strengthen eDiscovery Programs	• Ensure Cost Effectiveness
• Enhance Technology Capabilities	• Streamline eDiscovery Process
• Maintain Legal Defensibility

The CCA services offer corporations the ability to address eDiscovery challenges and improve outcomes through training, tools, and techniques delivered in three distinct program phases.

Corporate Consulting and Advisory Phases

• eDiscovery Policies and Procedure Development
• Implementation of eDiscovery Technologies and Processes
• The eDiscovery Training Program (EDTP)

A Comprehensive Approach with Cross-Disciplinary Expertise

HaystackID's CCA group consists of a cross-disciplinary group of subject matter experts trained and experienced to programmatically assess, evaluate, educate, and advise corporations in five core areas of eDiscovery. Guided by acknowledge industry experts with extensive experience as leaders and practitioners in their specific areas of expertise, the CCA group's alignment of areas and expertise provides corporations with a highly trained resource to holistically support the complete range of corporate eDiscovery requirements.
